

Nadiya Bobrova

Professor Pediatric Ophthalmology

From 1981 start to work at Filatov Institute as a junior senior scientific worker, then Chif of Pediatric Ophthalmology department till now. In 1992 awards academic status of Doctors Degree, in 1999 - becomes Professor of Ophthalmology. In 2003 obtain government award “Honored scientific worker of Ukraine”, in 2009 - “Honorius princess Olga” award.

Prof. Bobrova is a leading pediatric ophthalmologist in Ukraine well known as an anterior segment microsurgeon and retinoblastoma diagnostic and treatment. She is a pioneer in pediatric foldable IOL implantation and primary IOL implantation in early children with congenital cataracts, intravitreal melphalan retinoblastoma injections in Europe, etc.

She is the author of more than 600 scientific papers, more than 25 new surgical models, 7 books, among which: “Atlas congenital and hereditary eye pathology” (with Vit V.V., 2006), “Reconstructive surgery of pediatric eye traumas” (2013), “Cataracts” (with Scripnichenko Z.M., 2017), etc.

Prof. Bobrova is a member of European Paediatric Ophthalmological Society (EPOS), European Society of Cataract & Refractive Surgeons (ESCRS), The South-East European Ophthalmological Society (SEEOS), The Black Sea Ophthalmological Society (BSOS), European Society of Ophthalmology (SOE).