

Vincenzo Ferrara

Graduated at University of Pavia in 1986 and specialized with Honours in Ophthalmology at the same University in 1990. He started his experience in episcleral surgery under guidance of H.Lincoff and I.Kreissig and in vitreous surgery with S.Chang, focusing later on PVR and Macular Surgery, secondary IOL implants and complicated cataract. Physician at the San Raffaele Hospital and University of Varese from 1990 until 2001 and Senior Surgeon at the University Eye Clinic of Tübingen in 1997-1998. Adjunct Professor of Vitreo-Retinal Pathology and Surgery at the Specialization School in Ophthalmology of Varese since 1995 until 2007. Since 2001 until 2015 Head of the Vitreoretinal Unit and Scientific Director of post-residential advanced courses of vitreoretinal surgery at the SS. Trinità Hospital in Arona and Borgomanero (Novara). Faculty Member of International Tubingen Detachment Course since 1992 and Thessaloniki Vitreoretinal Summer School since 2011. Since July 2016 Head of Ophthalmology Department in Biella.